

Compliance Trainings

Compliance Trainings

Title	Time to Complete	Description
Insider Trading	Approximately 30-minutes	This course explores the laws governing the securities trading by corporate insiders and how the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) plays a role in the enforcement of the laws, as well as the procedure for reporting violations.
Intellectual Property Overview	Approximately 70-minutes	This training explains the basic types of intellectual property and ideas, the protections in place for intellectual property, and lays out potential consequences for violating intellectual property laws.
Supply Chain Transparency	Approximately 20-minutes	This course builds awareness around having a transparent supply chain with favorable human rights practices.
US Anti-Trust	Approximately 20-minutes	This course provides an overview of behaviors that may violate anti-trust laws and how to respond appropriately.
Code of Conduct Awareness	Approximately 30-minutes	This course can be customized to include your Code of Conduct and introduces Workers to the uses and benefits of the Code of Conduct.
Global Anti-Trust	Approximately 30-minutes	This training provides an understanding of the standards and reach of global anti-trust laws, intended for those regularly involved in transactions with international clients or partners.
Global Business Ethics	Approximately 25-minutes	This training provides participants with the traits and benefits of ethical conduct, as well as guidance on how to identify unethical behavior.
Global Gifts and Business Gratuities	Approximately 12-minutes	This training shares why it is important to maintain a business gifts/gratuities policy, and how to practically apply the policy to protect yourself and your organization from the appearance of improper or illegal conduct.
Global Conflicts of Interest	Approximately 20-minutes	This training describes how to identify and respond appropriately to potential conflicts of interest.