

NEW MEXICO MINIMUM WAGE ACT EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

MINIMUM WAGE IN NEW MEXICO

$12 per hour as of January 1, 2023

OVERTIME PAY

At least 1½ times your regular hourly rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in a workweek.

TIPPED WORKERS

Employers must pay tipped employees an hourly rate of at least $3 per hour. If the tips plus the hourly rate do not equal at least $12 per hour, the employer must make up the difference. Tipped employees have a right to keep all of their tips. Tip pooling may only be among wait staff.

NO SEPARATE RATE FOR STUDENTS OR MINORS

These minimum wage rates apply to all employees regardless of their age or student status.

DAMAGES

Employers who violate the minimum wage or overtime requirements are required to pay impacted employees the full amount of their underpaid wages plus interest, plus an additional amount equal to twice the underpaid wages.

RETALIATION PROHIBITED

It is unlawful to retaliate against an employee for asserting a wage claim or for informing other employees of their rights.

ENFORCEMENT

The Labor Relations Division of the Department of Workforce Solutions investigates claims and recovers back wages for employees who have been underpaid in violation of law, regardless of the dollar value of the claim, going back at least three years, or longer if there was a continuing course of conduct. Violations may result in civil or criminal action.

LOCAL MINIMUM WAGES RATES

The City of Santa Fe and Santa Fe County have higher base minimum wage rates. Albuquerque and Las Cruces have higher tipped minimum wage rates.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Certain jobs or employers are exempt from the minimum wage or overtime provisions.

Employers must display this poster where employees can easily see it.

For more information or to file a wage claim, contact the Labor Relations Division at 505-841-4400, or online at www.dws.state.nm.us

PAID SICK LEAVE

PAID SICK LEAVE Notice of Employee Rights

Healthy Workplaces Act | NMSA 50-17-1 to 50-17-12 | Effective date: July 1, 2022

Labor Relations Division

401 Broadway NE, Albuquerque, NM 87102

Albuquerque: (505) 841-4400 • Santa Fe: (505) 827-6838 • Las Cruces: (575) 524-6195

ACCRUAL

Employees accrue one hour of earned sick leave for every thirty hours worked, starting their first day of work. Up to 64 hours of unused earned sick leave can carry over year-to-year.

The Act provides minimum requirements; other laws or employer policies may provide for more accrual, use, or carry over of earned sick leave. The Act does not preempt or override the terms of any collective bargaining agreement.

The Act applies to all employees—full-time, part-time, seasonal, and temporary. The Act also applies to employees who are salaried, tipped, or on a per-diem schedule, as well as employees paid on task, piece, or commission basis. Employees may not contract out of or agree to waive their rights under the Act.

USE OF PAID SICK LEAVE

Employees may use up to 64 hours of earned sick leave per twelve-month period, if they work enough hours. Individual employers may set a higher limit. Employees may select when the 12-month period begins.

PAY

Used sick leave is compensated at the employee's usual hourly rate and benefits. The hourly rate must be at least minimum wage.

REASON FOR USE OF LEAVE

Employees may use accrued sick leave for the following reasons:

- Employee's treatment or diagnosis of illness, injury, or health condition, or preventative medical care.
- Care of employee's family members for treatment or diagnosis of illness, injury, or health condition, or preventative medical care.
- Meetings related to employee's child's health or disability.
- Absence necessary because of and related to domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking suffered by the employee or their family member.

USE OF SICK LEAVE

Employers must grant use of earned sick leave upon the oral or written request of an employee or an individual acting on the employee's behalf. When possible, the request must include the expected duration of the absence. An employer may not condition an employee's taking earned sick leave on the employee searching for or finding a replacement worker to cover during the employee's absence. An employer may not require an employee to use other paid leave before the employee uses sick leave pursuant to the Act.

The employee should notify the employer in advance when use of sick leave is foreseeable and make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so it does not disrupt business operations. When use of sick leave is not foreseeable, the employee must notify the employer as soon as practicable.

NOTICE

An employer must give written or electronic notice of employee rights and the Act's terms and provisions to an employee at the start of employment. This notice must be in English, Spanish, or any language that is the first language spoken by at least ten percent of the employer's workforce, as requested by the employee.

REASONABLE DOCUMENTATION

An employer may require reasonable documentation verifying the sick leave was used for a covered purpose if the employee uses two or more consecutive workdays of sick leave. Employers must treat all information obtained related to an employee taking sick leave as confidential.

DOCUMENT RETENTION

Employers must keep records documenting hours worked by employees and earned sick leave accrued and taken by employees for four years.

RETALIATION PROHIBITED

Employers may not take or threaten an adverse action against an employee that is reasonably likely to deter employees from exercising or attempting to exercise their rights under the Act. Employers may not retaliate because an employee raises concerns about violations of the Act, exercises their rights under the Act, or participates in investigations or legal proceedings related to alleged violations of the Act.

Examples of retaliation include the following: denying use or delaying payment of earned sick leave, termination, reducing work hours, giving the employee undesirable assignments or scheduling, threats, discipline, counting use of earned sick leave hours as an absence that may lead to any adverse action, or any other employment action considered less favorable.

COMPLAINT PROCESS

The New Mexico Department of Workforce Solutions, Labor Relations Division, enforces the Act. Any employee aggrieved by a violation of the Act may file a complaint with the Labor Relations Division by calling (505) 841-4400, visiting www.dws.state.nm.us, or going to a New Mexico Workforce Connections Office. Notice: The Division will disclose complainant's identity as part of the investigation. An employee's legal status for presence in the United States is not a defense to any action brought pursuant to the Act.

Employees must file a complaint with the Division or file a civil action in a court within three years from the date the alleged violation occurred.

An employer found to be in violation of the Act will be liable for damages and/or penalties pursuant to the Act.

For more details, see the full text of the law and regulations, available at www.dws.state.nm.us

PAID SICK LEAVE

AUSENCIA POR ENFERMEDAD PAGADA

Aviso de Derechos de Empleados

Ley de Lugares de Trabajo Saludables | NMSA 50-17-1 a 50-17-12 | Fecha de Vigencia: 1 de julio de 2022

Labor Relations Division

401 Broadway NE, Albuquerque, NM 87102 • Albuquerque: (505) 841-4400 • Santa Fe: (505) 827-6838 • Las Cruces: (575) 524-6195

ACUMULACIÓN

Empleados acumulan una hora de ausencia por enfermedad ganada por cada treinta horas trabajadas, a partir de su primer día de trabajo. Hasta 64 horas de ausencia por enfermedad ganada no usada puede transferirse año tras año.

La Ley establece requisitos mínimos; otras leyes o políticas de empleadores pueden proporcionar más acumulación, uso o transferencia de año tras año de la ausencia por enfermedad acumulada. La Ley no evita o anula los términos de cualquier convenio colectivo.

La Ley aplica a todo empleado—tiempo completo, tiempo parcial, temporada y temporal. La Ley también aplica a empleados que son asalariados, que reciben propinas, o en un programa de pago por día, al igual que empleados que reciben un pago por tarea, pieza o comisión. Empleados no pueden contratar o aceptar renunciar a sus derechos bajo la Ley.

USO DE AUSENCIA POR ENFERMEDAD PAGADA

Empleados pueden usar hasta 64 horas de ausencia por enfermedad ganada por período de doce meses, si trabajan suficientes horas. Empleadores individuales puede establecer un límite más alto. Empleadores pueden seleccionar cuando comienza el período de 12 meses.

PAGO

La ausencia por enfermedad usada se compensa con la tarifa por hora y los beneficios usuales del empleado. La tarifa por hora debe ser al menos el salario mínimo.

RAZÓN DEL USO DE LA AUSENCIA

Empleados pueden usar la ausencia por enfermedad acumulada para las siguientes razones:

- Tratamiento o diagnóstico de enfermedad, lesión o condición de salud del empleado, o atención médica preventiva para el empleado.
- Cuidado de los miembros de la familia del empleado para el tratamiento o diagnóstico de una enfermedad, lesión o condición de salud, o atención médica preventiva.
- Reuniones relacionadas con la salud o discapacidad del hijo del empleado.
- Ausencia necesaria por y relacionada con abuso doméstico, agresión sexual o acoso sufrido por el empleado o su familiar.

USO DE AUSENCIA POR ENFERMEDAD

Empleadores deben otorgar el uso de ausencia por enfermedad ganada a solicitud oral o escrita de un empleado o una persona que actúe en nombre del empleado. Cuando sea posible, la solicitud incluirá la duración esperada de la ausencia. Un empleador no puede condicionar el hecho de que un empleado tome una ausencia por enfermedad ganada a que el empleado busque o encuentre un trabajador de reemplazo para cubrir durante la ausencia del empleado. Un empleador no puede exigir a un empleado que use otra ausencia pagada antes de que el empleado use la ausencia por enfermedad de conformidad con la Ley.

El empleado debe notificar al empleador con anticipación cuando el uso de la ausencia por enfermedad es previsible y debe hacer un esfuerzo razonable para programar la ausencia de modo que no interrumpa las operaciones comerciales. Cuando el uso de la ausencia por enfermedad no sea previsible, el empleado notificará al empleador tan pronto como sea posible.

Un empleador debe dar aviso escrito o electrónico de los derechos de los empleados y los términos y disposiciones de la Ley a un empleado al comienzo del empleo. Este aviso debe estar en inglés, español o cualquier idioma que sea el primer idioma hablado por al menos el diez por ciento de la fuerza laboral del empleador, según lo solicite el empleado.

DOCUMENTACIÓN RAZONABLE

Un empleador puede exigir documentación razonable que verifique que la ausencia por enfermedad se usó para un propósito cubierto si el empleado usa dos o más días laborales consecutivos de ausencia por enfermedad. Empleadores deben tratar toda la información obtenida relacionada con un empleado que toma ausencia por enfermedad como confidencial.

RETENCIÓN DE DOCUMENTOS

Empleadores deben mantener registros que documenten las horas trabajadas por los empleados y la ausencia por enfermedad acumulada y tomada por los empleados durante cuatro años.

REPRESALIAS PROHIBIDAS

Empleadores no pueden tomar ni amenazar con tomar una acción adversa contra un empleado que sea razonablemente probable que disuada a los empleados de ejercer o intentar ejercer sus derechos bajo la Ley. Empleadores no pueden tomar represalias porque un empleado presente inquietudes sobre violaciones de la Ley, ejerza sus derechos bajo la Ley o participe en investigaciones o procedimientos legales relacionados con presuntas violaciones de la Ley.

Los ejemplos de represalias incluyen lo siguiente: negar el uso o retrasar el pago de la ausencia por enfermedad ganada, despido, reducción de horas de trabajo, dar al empleado asignaciones u horarios indeseables, amenazas, disciplina, contar el uso de las horas de ausencia por enfermedad ganada como una ausencia que puede llevar a cualquier acción adversa, o cualquier otra acción laboral considerada menos favorable.

PROCESO DE DENUNCIA

El Departamento de Soluciones de Fuerza Laboral de Nuevo México, la División de Relaciones Laborales, hace cumplir la Ley. Cualquier empleado agraviado por una violación de la Ley puede presentar una queja con la División de Relaciones llamando al (505) 841-4400, visitando www.dws.state.nm.us o dirigiéndose a una Oficina de Conexiones de Fuerza Laboral. Aviso: La División revelará la identidad del denunciante como parte de la investigación. El estatus legal de un empleado para la presencia en los Estados Unidos no es una defensa para ninguna acción presentada de conformidad con la Ley.

Empleados deben presentar una queja ante la División o presentar una acción civil en un tribunal dentro de tres años a partir de la fecha en que ocurrió la supuesta violación.

Un empleador que se encuentre en violación de la Ley será responsable de los daños y/o sanciones de conformidad con la Ley.

Para más detalles, consulte el texto completo de la ley y las regulaciones, disponibles en www.dws.state.nm.us

LA LEY DE DERECHOS HUMANOS DE NUEVO MÉXICO

El Buró de Derechos Humanos impone las provisiones de la Ley de Derechos Humanos de 1969. Adicionalmente, el Buró de Derechos Humanos tiene un acuerdo de reparto de trabajo con la Comisión de Igualdad de Oportunidades en el Empleo (Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, EEOC) para hacer cumplir las provisiones de la ley federal bajo el Título VII de la Ley de Derechos Civiles de 1964 (Civil Rights Act), la Ley de Discriminación por Edad en el Empleo de 1967 (Age Discrimination in Employment Act, ADEA), y la Ley de Americanos con Discapacidades de 1990 (Americans with Disabilities Act, ADA), todas según enmendadas. Las bases discriminatorias prohibidas incluyen:

- Raza
- Color
- Origen Nacional
- Ascendencia
- Sexo
- Edad
- Género
- Discapacidad Mental o Física o Condiciones Médicas Graves
- Orientación Sexual
- Identificación de Género
- Afiliación Nupcial
- Religión

El acoso sexual y acoso basado en otras categorías protegidas están prohibidos por la Ley.

La Ley de Derechos Humanos prohíbe la discriminación en las áreas de empleo, alojamiento, el acceso al crédito, y hospedaje público, y prohíbe la represalia por quejas en cualquiera de estas áreas.

Si usted siente que ha sido discriminado, comuníquese con el Buró de Derechos Humanos por teléfono o complete el formulario de quejas por Internet en:

Note: Employer must fill in this insurer / claims representative information.

YOUR RIGHTS

If you are injured in a work-related accident:

Your employer / insurer must pay all reasonable and necessary medical costs.

You may or may not have the right to choose your health care provider. If your employer / insurer has not given you written instructions about who chooses first, call an ombudsman. In an emergency, get emergency medical care first.

If you are off work for more than seven days, your employer / insurer must pay wage benefits to partially offset your lost wages.

If you suffer "permanent impairment," you may have the right to receive partial wage benefits for a longer period of time.

Ombudsmen are located at the following offices:

SUS DERECHOS

Si se lastima en el trabajo:

Su empleador / asegurador debe de pagar por los gastos médicos necesarios y razonables.

Es posible que usted tenga, o no tenga, el derecho de escoger el proveedor de servicios para la salud. Si su empleador / asegurador no le ha dado instrucciones por escrito de quien es él que selecciona primero, pregúntele o llame a un ombudsman. En una emergencia, obtenga asistencia médica de emergencia primero.

Si usted está fuera del trabajo por más de siete días, su empleador / asegurador debe de hacerle un pago compensatorio de prestaciones para compensar parcialmente la pérdida de su salario.

Si usted sufre "daño permanente," usted puede tener el derecho a recibir prestaciones parciales de salario por un periodo de tiempo más largo.

FEDERAL MINIMUM WAGE

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

FEDERAL MINIMUM WAGE $7.25

PER HOUR
BEGINNING
JULY 24, 2009

The law requires employers to display this poster where employees can readily see it.

OVERTIME PAY At least 1 ½ times your regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in a workweek.

CHILD LABOR An employee must be at least 16 years old to work in most non-farm jobs and at least 18 to work in non-farm jobs declared hazardous by the Secretary of Labor. Youths 14 and 15 years old may work outside school hours in various non-manufacturing, non-mining, non-hazardous jobs with certain work hours restrictions. Different rules apply in agricultural employment.

TIP CREDIT Employers of “tipped employees” who meet certain conditions may claim a partial wage credit based on tips received by their employees. Employers must pay tipped employees a cash wage of at least $2.13 per hour if they claim a tip credit against their minimum wage obligation. If an employee’s tips combined with the employer’s cash wage of at least $2.13 per hour do not equal the minimum hourly wage, the employer must make up the difference.

NURSING MOTHERS The FLSA requires employers to provide reasonable break time for a nursing mother employee who is subject to the FLSA’s overtime requirements in order for the employee to express breast milk for her nursing child for one year after the child’s birth each time such employee has a need to express breast milk. Employers are also required to provide a place, other than a bathroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from coworkers and the public, which may be used by the employee to express breast milk.

ENFORCEMENT The Department has authority to recover back wages and an equal amount in liquidated damages in instances of minimum wage, overtime, and other violations. The Department may litigate and/or recommend criminal prosecution. Employers may be assessed civil money penalties for each willful or repeated violation of the minimum wage or overtime pay provisions of the law. Civil money penalties may also be assessed for violations of the FLSA’s child labor provisions. Heightened civil money penalties may be assessed for each child labor violation that results in the death or serious injury of any minor employee, and such assessments may be doubled when the violations are determined to be willful or repeated. The law also prohibits retaliating against or discharging workers who file a complaint or participate in any proceeding under the FLSA.

- Certain occupations and establishments are exempt from the minimum wage, and/or overtime pay provisions. Certain narrow exemptions also apply to the pump at work requirements.
- Special provisions apply to workers in American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.
- Some state laws provide greater employee protections; employers must comply with both.
- Some employers incorrectly classify workers as “independent contractors” when they are actually employees under the FLSA. It is important to know the difference between the two because employees (unless exempt) are entitled to the FLSA’s minimum wage and overtime pay protections and correctly classified independent contractors are not.
- Certain full-time students, student learners, apprentices, and workers with disabilities may be paid less than the minimum wage under special certificates issued by the Department of Labor.

EEOC - Know Your Rights: Workplace Discrimination is Illegal

Know Your Rights: Workplace Discrimination is Illegal

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) enforces Federal laws that protect you from discrimination in employment. If you believe you've been discriminated against at work or in applying for a job, the EEOC may be able to help.

Who is Protected?

- Employees (current and former), including managers and temporary employees
- Job applicants
- Union members and applicants for membership in a union

What Organizations are Covered?

- Most private employers
- State and local governments (as employers)
- Educational institutions (as employers)
- Unions
- Staffing agencies

What Types of Employment Discrimination are Illegal?

Under the EEOC's laws, an employer may not discriminate against you, regardless of your immigration status, on the bases of:

- Race
- Color
- Religion
- National origin
- Sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, sexual orientation, or gender identity)
- Age (40 and older)
- Disability
- Genetic information (including employer requests for, or purchase, use, or disclosure of genetic tests, genetic services, or family medical history)
- Retaliation for filing a charge, reasonably opposing discrimination, or participating in a discrimination lawsuit, investigation, or proceeding

- Interference, coercion, or threats related to exercising rights regarding disability discrimination or pregnancy accommodation

What Employment Practices can be Challenged as Discriminatory?

All aspects of employment, including:

- Discharge, firing, or lay-off
- Harassment (including unwelcome verbal or physical conduct)
- Hiring or promotion
- Assignment
- Pay (unequal wages or compensation)
- Failure to provide reasonable accommodation for a disability; pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical condition; or a sincerely-held religious belief, observance or practice
- Benefits
- Job training
- Classification
- Referral
- Obtaining or disclosing genetic information of employees
- Requesting or disclosing medical information of employees
- Conduct that might reasonably discourage someone from opposing discrimination, filing a charge, or participating in an investigation or proceeding

- Conduct that coerces, intimidates, threatens, or interferes with someone exercising their rights, or someone assisting or encouraging someone else to exercise rights, regarding disability discrimination (including accommodation) or pregnancy accommodation

What can You Do if You Believe Discrimination has Occurred?

Contact the EEOC promptly if you suspect discrimination. Do not delay, because there are strict time limits for filing a charge of discrimination (180 or 300 days, depending on where you live/work). You can reach the EEOC in any of the following ways:

Submit an inquiry through the EEOC's public portal: <https://publicportal.eeoc.gov/Portal/Login.aspx>

Call 1-800-669-4000 (toll free)
1-800-669-6820 (TTY)

Visit an EEOC field office (information at www.eeoc.gov/field-office)

E-Mail info@eeoc.gov

Additional information about the EEOC, including information about filing a charge of discrimination, is available at www.eeoc.gov.

EMPLOYERS HOLDING FEDERAL CONTRACTS OR SUBCONTRACTS

The Department of Labor's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP) enforces the nondiscrimination and affirmative action commitments of companies doing business with the Federal Government. If you are applying for a job with, or are an employee of, a company with a Federal contract or subcontract, you are protected under Federal law from discrimination on the following bases:

Race, Color, Religion, Sex, Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, National Origin Executive Order 11246, as amended, prohibits employment discrimination by Federal contractors based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or national origin, and requires affirmative action to ensure equality of opportunity in all aspects of employment.

Asking About, Disclosing, or Discussing Pay Executive Order 11246, as amended, protects applicants and employees of Federal contractors from discrimination based on inquiring about, disclosing, or discussing their compensation or the compensation of other applicants or employees.

Disability Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, protects qualified individuals with disabilities from discrimination in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment by Federal contractors. Disability discrimination includes not making reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, barring undue hardship to the employer. Section 503 also requires that Federal contractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified individuals with disabilities at all levels of employment, including the executive level.

Protected Veteran Status The Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended, 38 U.S.C. 4212, prohibits employment discrimination against, and requires affirmative action to recruit, employ, and advance in employment, disabled veterans, recently separated veterans (i.e., within three years of discharge or release from active duty), active duty wartime or campaign badge veterans, or Armed Forces service medal veterans.

Retaliation Retaliation is prohibited against a person who files a complaint of discrimination, participates in an OFCCP proceeding, or otherwise opposes discrimination by Federal contractors under these Federal laws. Any person who believes a contractor has violated its nondiscrimination or affirmative action obligations under OFCCP's authorities should contact immediately:

The Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP)
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20210
1-800-397-6251 (toll-free)

If you are deaf, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability, please dial 7-1-1 to access telecommunications relay services. OFCCP may also be contacted by submitting a question online to OFCCP's Help Desk at <https://ofccphelpdesk.dol.gov/s/>, or by calling an OFCCP regional or district office, listed in most telephone directories under U.S. Government, Department of Labor and on OFCCP's "Contact Us" webpage at <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ofccp/contact>.

PROGRAMS OR ACTIVITIES RECEIVING FEDERAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Race, Color, National Origin, Sex In addition to the protections of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color or national origin in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Employment discrimination is covered by Title VI if the primary objective of the financial assistance is provision of employment, or where employment discrimination causes or may cause discrimination in providing services under such programs. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of sex in educational programs or activities which receive Federal financial assistance.

Individuals with Disabilities Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, prohibits employment discrimination on the basis of disability in any program or activity which receives Federal financial assistance. Discrimination is prohibited in all aspects of employment against persons with disabilities who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of the job. If you believe you have been discriminated against in a program of any institution which receives Federal financial assistance, you should immediately contact the Federal agency providing such assistance.

Your Employee Rights Under the Family and Medical Leave Act

What is FMLA leave? The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) is a federal law that provides eligible employees with job-protected leave for qualifying family and medical reasons. The U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division (WHD) enforces the FMLA for most employees.

Eligible employees can take up to 12 workweeks of FMLA leave in a 12-month period for:

- The birth, adoption or foster placement of a child with you,
- Your serious mental or physical health condition that makes you unable to work,
- To care for your spouse, child or parent with a serious mental or physical health condition, and
- Certain qualifying reasons related to the foreign deployment of your spouse, child or parent who is a military servicemember.

An eligible employee who is the spouse, child, parent or next of kin of a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness may take up to 26 workweeks of FMLA leave in a single 12-month period to care for the servicemember.

You have the right to use FMLA leave in one block of time. When it is medically necessary or otherwise permitted, you may take FMLA leave intermittently in separate blocks of time, or on a reduced schedule by working less hours each day or week. Read Fact Sheet #28M(c) for more information.

FMLA leave is not paid leave, but you may choose, or be required by your employer, to use any employer-provided paid leave if your employer's paid leave policy covers the reason for which you need FMLA leave.

Am I eligible to take FMLA leave? You are an eligible employee if all of the following apply:

- You work for a covered employer,
- You have worked for your employer at least 12 months,
- You have at least 1,250 hours of service for your employer during the 12 months before your leave, and
- Your employer has at least 50 employees within 75 miles of your work location.

Airline flight crew employees have different "hours of service" requirements.

You work for a covered employer if one of the following applies:

- You work for a private employer that had at least 50 employees during at least 20 workweeks in the current or previous calendar year,
- You work for an elementary or public or private secondary school, or
- You work for a public agency, such as a local, state or federal government agency. Most federal employees are covered by Title II of the FMLA, administered by the Office of Personnel Management.

How do I request FMLA leave? Generally, to request FMLA leave you must:

- Follow your employer's normal policies for requesting leave,
- Give notice at least 30 days before your need for FMLA leave, or
- If advance notice is not possible, give notice as soon as possible.

You do not have to share a medical diagnosis but must provide enough information to your employer so they can determine whether the leave qualifies for FMLA protection. You must also inform your employer if FMLA leave was previously taken or approved for the same reason when requesting additional leave.

Your employer may request certification from a health care provider to verify medical leave and may request certification of a qualifying exigency.

The FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination or supersede any state or local law or collective bargaining agreement that provides greater family or medical leave rights.

State employees may be subject to certain limitations in pursuit of direct lawsuits regarding leave for their own serious health conditions. Most federal and certain congressional employees are also covered by the law but are subject to the jurisdiction of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management or Congress.

What does my employer need to do? If you are eligible for FMLA leave, your employer must:

- Allow you to take job-protected time off work for a qualifying reason,
- Continue your group health plan coverage while you are on leave on the same basis as if you had not taken leave, and
- Allow you to return to the same job, or a virtually identical job with the same pay, benefits and other working conditions, including shift and location, at the end of your leave.

Your employer cannot interfere with your FMLA rights or threaten or punish you for exercising your rights under the law. For example, your employer cannot retaliate against you for requesting FMLA leave or cooperating with a WHD investigation.

After becoming aware that your need for leave is for a reason that may qualify under the FMLA, your employer must confirm whether you are eligible or not eligible for FMLA leave. If your employer determines that you are eligible, your employer must notify you in writing:

- About your FMLA rights and responsibilities, and
- How much of your requested leave, if any, will be FMLA-protected leave.

Where can I find more information?

Call 1-866-487-9243 or visit dol.gov/fmla to learn more.

If you believe your rights under the FMLA have been violated, you may file a complaint with WHD or file a private lawsuit against your employer in court. Scan the QR code to learn about our WHD complaint process.

USERRA - UNIFORMED SERVICES EMPLOYMENT AND REEMPLOYMENT RIGHTS ACT

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER USERRA

THE UNIFORMED SERVICES EMPLOYMENT AND REEMPLOYMENT RIGHTS ACT

USERRA protects the job rights of individuals who voluntarily or involuntarily leave employment positions to undertake military service or certain types of service in the National Disaster Medical System. USERRA also prohibits employers from discriminating against past and present members of the uniformed services, and applicants to the uniformed services.

REEMPLOYMENT RIGHTS

You have the right to be reemployed in your civilian job if you leave that job to perform service in the uniformed service and:

- you ensure that your employer receives advance written or verbal notice of your service;
- you have five years or less of cumulative service in the uniformed services while with that particular employer;
- you return to work or apply for reemployment in a timely manner after conclusion of service; and
- you have not been separated from service with a disqualifying discharge or under other than honorable conditions.

If you are eligible to be reemployed, you must be restored to the job and benefits you would have attained if you had not been absent due to military service or, in some cases, a comparable job.

RIGHT TO BE FREE FROM DISCRIMINATION AND RETALIATION

If you:

- are a past or present member of the uniformed service;
- have applied for membership in the uniformed service; or
- are obligated to serve in the uniformed service;

then an employer may not deny you:

- initial employment;
- reemployment;
- retention in employment;
- promotion; or
- any benefit of employment

because of this status.

In addition, an employer may not retaliate against anyone assisting in the enforcement of USERRA rights, including testifying or making a statement in connection with a proceeding under USERRA, even if that person has no service connection.

HEALTH INSURANCE PROTECTION

- If you leave your job to perform military service, you have the right to elect to continue your existing employer-based health plan coverage for you and your dependents for up to 24 months while in the military.
- Even if you don't elect to continue coverage during your military service, you have the right to be reinstated in your employer's health plan when you are reemployed, generally without any waiting periods or exclusions (e.g., pre-existing condition exclusions) except for service-connected illnesses or injuries.

ENFORCEMENT

- The U.S. Department of Labor, Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS) is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of USERRA violations.
- For assistance in filing a complaint, or for any other information on USERRA, contact VETS at 1-866-4-USA-DOL or visit its website at <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/vets/>. An interactive online USERRA Advisor can be viewed at <https://webapps.dol.gov/elaws/vets/userra>
- If you file a complaint with VETS and VETS is unable to resolve it, you may request that your case be referred to the Department of Justice or the Office of Special Counsel, as applicable, for representation.
- You may also bypass the VETS process and bring a civil action against an employer for violations of USERRA.

Publication Date — May 2022

The rights listed here may vary depending on the circumstances. The text of this notice was prepared by VETS, and may be viewed on the internet at this address: <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/vets/programs/userra/poster> Federal law requires employers to notify employees of their rights under USERRA, and employers may meet this requirement by displaying the text of this notice where they customarily place notices for employees.

EMPLOYEE POLYGRAPH PROTECTION ACT

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS EMPLOYEE POLYGRAPH PROTECTION ACT

The Employee Polygraph Protection Act prohibits most private employers from using lie detector tests either for pre-employment screening or during the course of employment.

PROHIBITIONS Employers are generally prohibited from requiring or requesting any employee or job applicant to take a lie detector test, and from discharging, disciplining, or discriminating against an employee or prospective employee for refusing to take a test or for exercising other rights under the Act.

EXEMPTIONS Federal, State and local governments are not affected by the law. Also, the law does not apply to tests given by the Federal Government to certain private individuals engaged in national security-related activities. The Act permits polygraph (a kind of lie detector) tests to be administered in the private sector, subject to restrictions, to certain prospective employees of security service firms (armored car, alarm, and guard), and of pharmaceutical manufacturers, distributors and dispensers. The Act also permits polygraph testing, subject to restrictions, of certain employees of private firms who are reasonably suspected of involvement in a workplace incident (theft, embezzlement, etc.) that resulted in economic loss to the employer. The law does not preempt any provision of any State or local law or any collective bargaining agreement which is more restrictive with respect to lie detector tests.

EXAMINEE RIGHTS Where polygraph tests are permitted, they are subject to numerous strict standards concerning the conduct and length of the test. Examinees have a number of specific rights, including the right to a written notice before testing, the right to refuse or discontinue a test, and the right not to have test results disclosed to unauthorized persons.

ENFORCEMENT The Secretary of Labor may bring court actions to restrain violations and assess civil penalties against violators. Employees or job applicants may also bring their own court actions.

THE LAW REQUIRES EMPLOYERS TO DISPLAY THIS POSTER WHERE EMPLOYEES AND JOB APPLICANTS CAN READILY SEE IT.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION NOTICE

It is illegal to discriminate against work authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination.

For information, please contact
The Office of Special Counsel for Immigration
Related Unfair Employment Practices Office at 800-255-7688.

WITHHOLDING STATUS

Since you last filed form W-4 with your employer did you...

- Marry or divorce?
- Gain or lose a dependent?
- Change your name?

Were there major changes to...

- Your non-wage income (interest, dividends, capital gains, etc.)?
- Your family wage income (you or your spouse started or ended a job)?
- Your itemized deductions?
- Your tax credits?

If you can answer “YES”...

To any of these questions or you owed extra tax when you filed your last return, you may need to file a new form W-4. See your employer for a copy of Form W-4 or call the IRS at 1-800-829-3676.

Now is the time to check your withholding. For more details, get Publication 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding?, or use the Withholding Calculator at: www.irs.gov/individuals on the IRS website.

Employer: Please post or publish this Bulletin Board Poster so that your employees will see it. Please indicate where they can get forms and information on this subject.
